

Artist Statement

« Delicate, ethereal portraits, intent to dig in the most hidden areas of the human soul with the intention of capturing its spirit.

These are Celine Kobierzynski's paintings, emotionally evocative subjects, suspended in a magnetic aura, blocked by an ecstatic quiet that animates the poetic universe to which they pertain.

The Artist explores the realest beauty of her women, so sophisticated and elegant that seem to arrive from an "other" dimension. The approach to the feminine world is delicate and is accompanied by a meticulous technique that makes light her strength.

The observer is enveloped in the contemplation of a shy gaze, and gets closer to these paintings of grace and intimacy, almost as if not to disturb these hieratic presences in a state of suspension between reality and suggestion. In her expressive proceeding, Celine uses the evocative power of the light, manipulating it as if it was matter, in order of giving that a-temporal dimension that make her artworks so fascinating.

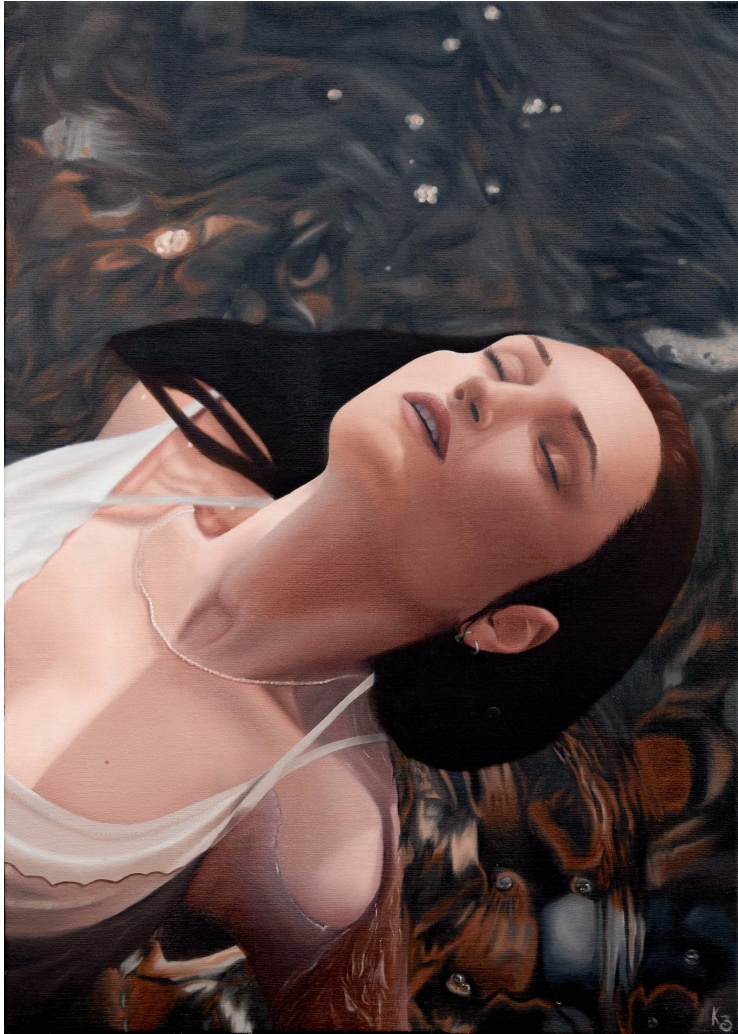

Light caresses the faces and bodies of these models that become visual poetry, and the Artist reveals the sensitive soul with the most hidden facets.

There's a sense of dominating peace, of placid silence, a quiet that envelops and involves and doesn't want to let go. »
